Congratulations! Your pension account is now open, and your individual product number is confirmed above.

As part of the declaration which you completed to activate your Seccl Personal Pension, there were links to the Key Features Document and Terms and Conditions.

We look forward to working with you to help you save for later life and achieve your retirement goals.

If you decide to cancel, what should you do?

You have 30 days from the date of this letter to cancel your account with us if you change your mind. Further information can be found in your Key Features document.

Please note, by cancelling we will also cancel any contributions or transfers you or your adviser have instructed.

To cancel please email us at sipp@seccl.tech.

Should you have any queries or require any further information, please contact us.
